Worship is not a music style you prefer,
but a lifestyle you choose

Worship at its core is initiated by God revealing Himself, and all of creation responding to Him.

Romans 12:1 (NLT)

And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him.

What God has done for us described in Romans:

- He has justified us in faith (5:1)
- He has adopted us in Jesus and identified us with Christ (6:1-10)
- Jesus has set us under grace, not law (6:14)
- He gives us the gift of the indwelling Holy Spirit (8:9-11)
- He helps us in all affliction (8:28)
- Jesus gives us the certainty of his coming glory (8:18)
- He gives us assured confidence of no separation from His love (8:38)
- Gives us total confidence in His continued faithfulness (3:3-4)

Our response: Giving every fiber of our being to Him. (12:1)

Luke 13:18-19 (NLT)

Then Jesus said, "What is the Kingdom of God like? How can I illustrate it? It is like a tiny mustard seed that a man planted in a garden; it grows and becomes a tree, and the birds make nests in its branches."

Vulnerable Tree

Exposed to the elements

Don't uproot in doubt what you have planted in faith

*The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy.
I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.*
John 10:10 (ESV)

The same thing that makes you valuable also makes you vulnerable

Buried Seed

God, where are you?

The bigger your faith grows, the deeper your roots go

Vulnerable Tree

Those who plant in tears will harvest with shouts of joy. They weep as they go to plant their seed, but they sing as they return with the harvest.

Psalm 126:5-6 (NLT)
